Two Seminars in Brentwood, NH on 15 June 2012

Pilgrim United Church of Christ ~ 197 Middle Road ~ Brentwood, NH

Presenter – Honey Hastings, lawyer-mediator

Attorney Hastings has 30 years of family law experience. She regularly presents workshops on family law for mediators, guardians ad litem, lawyers, and mental health professionals.

Practical Ethics:
Supporting Self-Determination in Mediation

8:45 am – 12:00 pm

This practice-oriented workshop focuses on self-determination, the key principle in mediation. It will address self-determination throughout the process, including: marketing a mediation practice, intake and screening, structuring the process, role of lawyers and other third parties. Also to be covered, practical approaches to explaining “confidentiality” and its limitations to clients. Materials will include sample forms, form letters, and client education materials.

Approved:

Family Mediator Certification Board - 3 hours Ethics credit.

NH Minimum Continuing Legal Education (NH Bar) – 1 General & 2 Ethics credits.

VT Bar – 3 hours General credit.

NH Guardian ad Litem Board – 3 hours credit

Legal Updates for Family Law Professionals

12:45 pm – 4:00 pm

Presenter – Honey Hastings, lawyer-mediator

This program will review relevant changes in family law in the last 4 years, with emphasis on changes in the most recent 12 months. The materials will include case summaries, new statutes, and new court/administrative rules and how they impact the work of divorce professionals. This has been a big year in the legislature for family law and ADR; find out what has passed, what is still pending and what was rejected.

Approved:

Family Mediator Certification Board - 3 hours Legal Update credit.

NH Minimum Continuing Legal Education (NH Bar) - 3 General credits.

VT Bar – 3 hours General credit.

NH Guardian ad Litem Board – 3 hours credit
