Two Seminars in Plymouth, NH on 18 May 2012

Whole Village ~ 258 Highland Street ~ Plymouth, NH

Presenter – Honey Hastings, lawyer-mediator

Attorney Hastings has 30 years of family law experience. She regularly presents workshops on family law for mediators, guardians ad litem, lawyers, and mental health professionals.

Divorce in the Golden Years: Getting to “Equitable”

8:45 am – 12:00 pm

Also, Guest Presenter – John Dulmage, Certified Financial Planner

This skills workshop covers how to help clients over 60 years old reach win-win agreements. The needs of the over-60 divorce client are quite different from the 30 and 40-somethings typically involved in divorces. Unique factors include: many of the marriages are over 35 years in duration; on-going relationships with adult children and grandchildren are important; what these clients have in assets are likely all they will ever have; and income is often either fixed or declining.

Approved:

Family Mediator Certification Board for 3 hours of Skills credit
NH Minimum Continuing Legal Education (NH Bar) for 3 hours General credit
VT Bar for 3 hours General credit

Social Security: What Divorce Professionals Need to Know

12:45 pm – 4:00 pm

Also, Guest Presenter – Ken Baron, SSA Public Affairs Specialist

America’s “safety net” frequently factors into divorce and other family law cases. This workshop will review Social Security programs, both needs-based and “insurance” based. One party may be receiving disability benefits: how does this impact support and asset split? Retirement benefits may be 2 years or 20 years in the future; how should they be factored in? Will Medicare or Medicaid supply health care to some family members? How is child support calculated when one parent is receiving Social Security?

Approved:

Family Mediator Certification Board for 3 hours of Legal Update credit
NH Minimum Continuing Legal Education (NH Bar) for 3 hours General credit
VT Bar for 3 hours General credit
NH GAL Board for 3 CEUs
